Frank Bonamo Yeager is originally from Chicago, IL. His family moved to Arizona when he was 9 years old. Frank started his own adventure in 2008, moving to Oklahoma at the age of 17 to start college. Frank lives in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma and has since he moved to the area. It is his home and he knew it right when he moved here. He loves everything about Broken Arrow and enjoys seeing SpaOLogy continue to grow.

Frank moved here and started from square 1. When breaking down to square 1 and working your way to the top all over again, it makes you open your eyes to all the achievements and appreciate every little thing that you do. It builds the person's character to accept everything that comes their way.
